OCR ACCESSIBILITY SAMPLE

LEFT COLUMN

Research starts here.

Alpha beta gamma.

Read this column first.

The source has paragraphs.

Text needs human review.

We check words and order.

Notes support research.

Each reader can select text.

Books can contain figures.

Their meaning needs a person.

This is the end of the left.

RIGHT COLUMN

The second topic.

Delta epsilon zeta.

Read this column next.

This source is a scan.

OCR is a text alternative.

It does not describe images.

It does not certify access.

Review follows recognition.

Proof records source facts.

Speech is checked separately.

This is the end of the right.